Book Synopsis

Flint Hopkins finds the perfect tenant to rent the space above his Minneapolis-based law office.

All the t's are crossed and i's dotted on Ellen's application. Her references are good. And she's easy on the eyes.

Until ...

Flint discovers Ellen Rodgers, Board-Certified Music Therapist, plays music. Bongos, guitars, singing—not Beethoven administered through noise-cancelling headphones.

The cut-throat attorney serves up an eviction notice to the bubbly, constantly humming redhead who's too sexy for her own good. But luck is on Ellen's side when Flint's autistic son, Harrison, takes an instant liking to her. A single dad can't compete with guitars—and rats. Yes, she has pet rats.

This woman ...

She's annoyingly happy with a constant need to touch him—adjust his tie, button his shirt, invade his space, and mess with his mind.

Still ...

She must go.
